Robert Morris, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, said in Dallas Sunday that if elected he would "press for full investigation of Soviet infiltration of the U.S. State Department."

Speaking at a reception in the home of Mrs. Fran Oliver, 10317 Betty Jane Lane, Morris said he knew of reports "that the State Department has been forced to conduct a top secret review of the security status of 175 of its officers in Washington and in foreign service."

"We do know that many of Alger Hiss' proteges are still in the State Department and in our international agencies," he said.

He also alluded to "reports" of a Polish defector who "can identify Soviet agents within the State Department and Central Intelligence Agency."
